

Article VII

Disbanding the Society

- (1) The Committee or ten Members of the Society may present a request to the President that the Society be disbanded. In this case, an EGM shall be called for decision on the request.
- (2) Two thirds of all valid votes cast at the EGM is required to disband the Society.
- (3) Upon disbanding, the Committee is responsible for meeting all remaining liabilities. Any remaining assets shall be donated to charity at the discretion of the Committee.

Article VIII

Closing provisions

- (1) The Committee shall act according to its interpretation of the Constitution or at its discretion in all matters on which this Constitution is silent. If the Committee cannot come to an agreement in matters of interpretation of the Constitution, the final interpretation shall be made by majority vote.
- (2) No words or construction in this Constitution shall be taken to imply any discrimination whatsoever with regard to race, sex, sexuality, religion, nationality or political views.
- (3) This Constitution was written in consultation with Members of the Society and was adopted by unanimous vote of the Committee on this first day of May two thousand and seventeen. This Constitution shall repeal and replace all provisions of any previous Constitutions of the Society on this same day.
