  - The CUHS should be the organiser society

- ❖ Getaway day to Norwich
  - Date: TBC, most likely 4th or 5th November
  - Train tickets of the members will be subsidised by the Society
  - We could go to the coastal town, Cromer as well but that would be too much travelling for one day

- ❖ Freshers' Formal
  - Date: TBC, Week 6

- ❖ Academic talks
  - Edit L. Gy. initiated a lecture series, but she needs the Society to book a room on a weekly basis and to publicise the events. She sent us some of her ideas but the organisation of the events was quite incomplete.
  - Prof Gábor Csányi sent an email to Dávid Kovács, asking if his talk was really happening in a few days time. As it turned out, Edit had already asked him to deliver a talk, stating that the CUHS would provide the venue.
  - The Committee decided not to join the organisation of this event for the following reasons:
    - It is highly unlikely that the Society could book a nice lecture room few days before the actual time.
    - The event should have been publicised much sooner to get a good turnout of audience.
    - Edit stated that the venue would be provided by the CUHS without confirming this with the Committee.
    - Many details of the organisation were missing or not properly communicated towards the CUHS officers, making it problematic to support the programme in any way.
  - Marcell will get in touch with Prof Gábor Csányi (and anyone else) involved to clarify the situation. András will send the final decision of the Committee to Edit.
  - A similar event could be organised in the future, but with much more care and thoroughness. (Edit may be involved in this.)

- 46 new subscribers including 20 membership purchases
- András will add them to the mailing list and the membership database, will send out a welcome message as well
