1. Events

❖ Students' Seminar

- Date: 25 January
- Venue: Ramsden Room, St Catharine's College
- 2 presentations by Áron Penczu and István Farsang
- There might be another seminar in this term if people are keen to present their research or dissertations (apply via email: vice-president "at" cuhs.co.uk)

❖ Formal swap with the Estonian Society

- Date: 28 January
- Venue: St Catharine's College
- Guest tickets cost 13.12, it will be subsidised by the Society

❖ Farsang

- Date: 2-4 February TBC
- Venue: Jesus JCR – Marcell will arrange it with the college
- Back-up plan: Pembroke NCR

❖ Formal swap with the Polish Society

- Date: 13 February
- Venue: Pembroke College
- We are aiming for 20+20 people
- The tickets will be arranged by the CUHS

❖ Annual Dinner

- Zsófi has already contacted some colleges
- Cost: most colleges offer such a fancy dinner for £45-60. This would be heavily subsidised by the Society (£15-20) so tickets would cost c.a. £30 for members

- Date: depends on the colleges, quite a few are already fully booked
 - 40-50 members are expected to come
- ❖ Annual General Meeting
- Date: March (Week 7-8)
 - Venue: Andris will try to book the McGrath Conference Centre in St Catharine's College
- ❖ Future: Hungary Conference 2018
- Date: 17 March
 - Venue: Hilton City Centre, Cambridge (confirmed now)
 - Formal dinner in Trinity Hall
 - Gergő informed the Committee about the latest developments
 - Many companies are already involved
 - All of the Committee members present were happy about the wide range of companies or made some new suggestions
 - There is a start-up competition planned, this should be greatly publicised so that not only Hungarian students would participate
 - Dávid Kovács transferred £600 for the organising committee for the early expenses (e.g. design)
 - The transfer from London would be facilitated by train (group ticket), this is a faster and cheaper solution than a private coach
- ❖ Additional event ideas (budget of £500)
- Talk by László Nemes Jeles
 - He is not available, but Levente Molnár could come
 - Péter Juhász keeps in touch with them
 - We could invite someone else from the film industry e.g. Ildikó Enyedi, László Mérő, László Barabási, Balázs Simonyi
 - Wine tasting event
